

Greg Bush

Education:

- BA – Environmental Geography/secondary education; Univ. of Washington, 1974
- MCRP –Masters City and Regional Planning; Calif. State Univ. Fresno, 1980
- Management and Administration Program ; Univ. of Washington Graduate School of Business, 1978
- Management of Technology and Innovation, Univ. of Washington Graduate School of Business, 1998
- Water and Wastewater Leadership Program; Univ. of North Carolina Graduate School of Business, 2004

Employment History:

- 1974-5, Seattle School District, Secondary Teacher
 - 1976-7, Grad. School
 - 1977-8, US EPA, Non Point Source Specialist for Stormwater Management
 - 1978-9, King County Division of Planning, Planner 2
 - 1977-80, Grad. School, Thesis
 - 1981-present, King County/Metro
-
- Employed by King County/Metro since 1981. Current title: Planning and Compliance Manager, Wastewater Treatment Division. Twenty years of division or section management experience.
 - Capital project management experience concurrent with Division/section management responsibilities included:
 - Project manager for biosolids drying facility ($60 M)
 - Program manager for Technology Development Program ($10 M)
 - Technical Staff Manager for Safeco Field MLB Ballpark development ($350M)
 - Project manager for Fuel Cell Demonstration ($22 M)

Special Accomplishments:

- Author of numerous papers on subjects including: public/private partnerships; wetlands mitigation; environmental impact mitigation for capital projects; alternative solids processing; fuel cell development; distributed energy generation.
- Developed the Seattle Shoreline Mitigation Program
- Developed the King County Environmental Engineering Scholarship Fund at the University of Washington